

New Cobden Substation

It has been over 30 years since SIEC built a new substation. The Cobden substation will give us current relief at the Lick Creek and Jonesboro substations, and for the future growth of our membership. This will also be beneficial during a major outage, which may affect the northern section of our service territory.

